

Foraker Realty Co. Important Acknowledgements

Home inspection:

Although waiving all or part of the inspections may increase your likelihood of getting your offer accepted, it is important that you understand the risks associated with doing so. Any home regardless of its appearance can have hidden defects. The costs associated with these defects may range from thousands of dollars to hundreds of thousands of dollars. Before waiving any inspections I recommend that you consult with an attorney and a home inspector/contractor to fully understand the risks associated with doing so. By doing a home inspection for informational purposes only, you are not afforded the right to withdraw from the agreement if defects are found.

Appraisal:

Although waiving part or all of your appraisal may help the likelihood of a seller accepting your offer, there are risks associated with doing so. If the property does not appraise at or above the purchase price, you may have issues with financing this purchase. Before waiving any procedures in the home buying process, I recommend you consult with an attorney to fully understand the risks involved with doing so and how it may affect your rights.

Admin Fee:

All admin fees will be waived for any Veterans. Otherwise, our admin fee is only $495.

Consumer Notice:

By signing below you acknowledge receipt of the local consumer information sheet.

Wire Fraud:

Wire Fraud is a real threat to anyone using the internet. You will not receive wire instructions from us via email. You will never be directed by email to send us or anyone in the transaction money. Always call a trusted number before wiring money. Criminals are creating fake email addresses to look like your agents and asking for your money.

By signing below you agree to hold Foraker Realty and its agents harmless from any claims resulting in issues that arise from waiving any contingencies in the contract or losses associated from wire fraud.
